BIBLE STUDY WORKSHEET

Learning to Hear God's Voice

Listen with humility, test with Scripture, and obey what is already clear.

Prepared by Vanessa

"My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me."
John 10:27 (KJV)

OPENING PRAYER

Speak, Lord, and make me willing to listen. Quiet hurry, fear, pride, and wishful thinking. Ground me in Scripture, surround me with wise counsel, and give me courage to obey what You have already made clear. Amen.

PURPOSE OF THIS STUDY

This study explores how God guides through Scripture, the Holy Spirit, prayer, wisdom, circumstances, and mature counsel. It encourages listening without treating every thought or feeling as a divine command.

What I hope God will show me through this study:

Scripture Foundation

1. John 10:27

My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me.

Observation:

2. 2 Timothy 3:16-17

Read this passage slowly. What does it reveal about God, about us, and about a faithful response?

Observation:

3. James 1:5

Read this passage slowly. What does it reveal about God, about us, and about a faithful response?

Observation:

4. Luke 11:28

Read this passage slowly. What does it reveal about God, about us, and about a faithful response?

Observation:

Teaching and Truth

1. Scripture is the anchor

God's guidance will not require us to contradict His character or clear biblical teaching. Scripture gives us the language and boundaries for discernment.

Read and reflect: 2 Timothy 3:16-17

2. Listen without forcing certainty

Some decisions involve wisdom rather than a dramatic sign. We can pray, gather facts, consider fruit, seek counsel, and move humbly without claiming God said what He did not say.

Read and reflect: James 1:5

3. Obedience sharpens attention

We often seek new direction while avoiding what is already clear: forgive, tell the truth, act justly, keep wise boundaries, serve, and love. Faithful obedience prepares us for further guidance.

Read and reflect: Luke 11:28

TRUTH TO REMEMBER

I will listen with humility, test guidance carefully, and obey what is clear. God does not need fear, pressure, or manipulation to lead me.

Which teaching point speaks most directly to your current season?

Personal Reflection

1. How do you usually expect God to guide you?

2. Does the direction agree with Scripture and Christlike character?

3. Is fear, pride, pressure, or personal desire shaping your interpretation?

4. What do wise, mature believers notice?

5. What clear act of obedience is already in front of you?

BIBLE STUDY WORKSHEET

Faith in Action

Choose at least one practice for the coming week.

[ ] Read one passage slowly and write what it actually says before applying it.

[ ] Wait before making a major decision under emotional pressure.

[ ] Ask two trustworthy people for honest counsel.

[ ] Use humble language: 'I believe God may be leading me' rather than using certainty to control others.

My specific next step:

GROUP DISCUSSION

1. Why is humility essential when saying God is leading us?

2. How can peace be helpful without becoming the only test?

3. What should we do when sincere believers disagree?

Prayer, Commitment, and Notes

CLOSING PRAYER

Holy Spirit, guide us into truth. Keep us humble, grounded, patient, and willing to receive correction. Help us recognize Your leading and reflect the character of Jesus in every decision. Amen.

SPEAK THIS TRUTH

I will listen with humility, test guidance carefully, and obey what is clear. God does not need fear, pressure, or manipulation to lead me.
